The Banner's Next BIG Thing

The Stunning play a special New Years Eve gig in Ennis this year, and they're teaming up with Clare FM to find the Banner County's Next Big Thing....

If you're a solo artist, or part of a band and would like to perform as a support act to one of Ireland's best loved bands then here's your chance...

Clare FM's dedicated new Irish music show Access All Irish will be picking the Top 5 Acts in the county throughout the month of November with host Liam Byrne and The Stunning having the final choice...

Then it's up to the YOU the public...

For 1 week across the schedule we will play songs from the 5 chosen acts on-air, then we open up our lines and the people of County Clare get to choose who will get their moment in the spotlight...

Closing Date for entries – Monday December 1st 2008

All entrants must be over 18 years of age.

You can post your demos to
